

Communion of the Saints (Answer Key)

Everyone who is unified in Jesus is a saint.

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us.
Heb 12:1 (NABRE)

Who's That Saint?

Match the saint with their description.

I had a heart for the poor and rebuilding the Church, received the stigmata, and was known to praise God for his creation.

St. Mary Magdalene

I was the protector of the Holy Family, am known as the greatest saint apart from Mary, and worked as a carpenter.

St. Joseph

I was the first person to announce Jesus' resurrection, was delivered from 7 demons, and am known as the apostle of apostles.

St. Therese

I entered into religious life at 15 years old, I am the patron of missionaries, and I love sending roses from heaven.

St. Francis

Did You Know?

Only a pope can canonize a saint. Typically, two miracles through the intercession of the proposed saint have to be verified. A person is considered a "blessed" before they are canonized a saint. Blessed Carlo Acutis (the first millennial saint) will be canonized in 2025.

