

Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit make our souls pleasing to God.

And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. - Isaiah 11:1-3

Seven Gifts / Seven Shields

Write the correct gift on the shield that holds its definition:
Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety,
and fear of God

Denotes a firmness of mind in doing good and in avoiding evil, confidence to overcome all obstacles, by virtue of the assurance of everlasting life.	Where we revere God and avoid separating ourselves from him.	Allows a man to be directed by God in matters necessary for his salvation.	Penetrating insight into the very heart of things, especially those higher truths that are necessary for our eternal salvation—in effect, the ability to “see” God.
Ability to judge correctly about matters of faith and right action, so as to never wander from the straight path of justice.	Revering God with filial affection, paying worship and duty to God, and to all men on account of God, honoring the saints, and not contradicting Scripture.	Both the knowledge of and judgment about “divine things” and the ability to judge and direct human affairs according to divine truth.

Did You Know?

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit , “are infused into every Christian as a permanent endowment at his baptism, nurtured by the practice of the seven virtues, and sealed in the sacrament of confirmation.” (Blisard 2024)

Reflection Questions

Pause to reflect on the Holy Spirit.

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit are traits that make-up the Christian hero. They are endowed to us at our baptism and sealed at our confirmation, but we have to “work out” with them. Which gift do you desire to work with most at this phase of your life?

Being a Catholic Christian is not for the faint of heart. We are on an epic adventure that requires everything we’ve got! These gifts will come in very handy at key moments on our journeys. When have you seen one of these gifts show up in your life when you needed it most?

Response of Supplication

Use your reflections to guide a prayer to the Holy Spirit.

Take a moment to pledge yourself more fervently to Our Lord as a key player in the advancing of God’s Kingdom. Ask the Holy Spirit for an increase of his gifts. Ask for a specific gift you need to face a trial.

Guided Imaginative Prayer

Follow the prompt to enter into imaginative prayer with God.

Imagine yourself in a vast Medieval castle clad in armor and sweaty from exertion. You have just proven proficiency in the virtue of fortitude in a jousting tournament. The Queen wishes to bestow on you seven gifts from her Spouse’s treasury to prepare you for an impending battle you must fight in. You kneel before her in veneration. By the power of the Holy Spirit, she places the Sword of Truth on your shoulder declares the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of God as yours for the wielding. Feel the fire of the Holy Spirit penetrate your heart as you receive this marvelous gift.
