

Seven Gifts Answer Key

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit
make our souls pleasing to God.

And the Spirit of the Lord shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and the fear of the Lord. And his delight shall be in the fear of the Lord. - Isaiah 11:1-3

Seven Gifts / Seven Shields

Write the correct gift on the shield that holds its definition:
Wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of God

Denotes a firmness of mind in doing good and in avoiding evil, confidence to overcome all obstacles, by virtue of the assurance of everlasting life.

Fortitude

Where we revere God and avoid separating ourselves from him.

Fear of God

Allows a man to be directed by God in matters necessary for his salvation.

Counsel

Penetrating insight into the very heart of things, especially those higher truths that are necessary for our eternal salvation—in effect, the ability to “see” God.

Understanding

Ability to judge correctly about matters of faith and right action, so as to never wander from the straight path of justice.

Knowledge

Revering God with filial affection, paying worship and duty to God, and to all men on account of God, honoring the saints, and not contradicting Scripture.

Piety

Both the knowledge of and judgment about “divine things” and the ability to judge and direct human affairs according to divine truth.

Wisdom
